

2491 - ANTIKWOOD

Product Description:

2491 Antikwood creates the look of old, rustic wood by combining real wood veneers with a surface that appears slightly brushed. The structure is rather straight-lined and even.

Composition:

2491 Antikwood is an embossed panel with special developed compositions of veneers with solid wood / a plywood core.

Fields of application:

Only for interior: Interior fittings. Furniture manufacture. Shop and fair construction. Doors.

Technical Data:

First given measurement specifies the direction of embossment:

Invoiced size (mm): 3135 x 1270 / 1270 x 3135
 Delivered size (mm): 3145 x 1280 / 1280 x 3145

Repeating pattern: No repeating pattern

Available thicknesses: 5 mm / 18,5 mm
 Coreboard: Multi layer construction / Plywood
 Surface: raw, unlacquered

Density: ca. 850 kg/m<sup>3</sup>
 Weight: ca. 4 kg/m<sup>2</sup> (5 mm)
 ca. 16 kg/m<sup>2</sup> (18,5 mm)

Embossment: one-side
 Deepness of structure: max. 2,6 mm

Tolerances:

Straightness: 3,0 mm per Meter
 Size accuracy: +/- 1,0 mm per Meter
 Thickness allowance: +/- 0,5 mm
 Exactitude of profile: +/- 1,5 mm

Rose Oak
Real wood veneer

Spruce antique
Real wood veneer

Antique grey
Real wood veneer

Walnut antique
Real wood veneer

Larch smoked
Real wood veneer

Explanatory notes:

The given details in this data sheet are our field-tested experience. They could not consider any parameter, use case or application and they are therefore without commitment. These data does not represent guarantee of condition in the legal sense or a assurance of the characteristics. No legal claims could be derived by using the information given in these data sheets or by our free of charge technical consultants. Images are for illustration purposes only. Wood is a natural product, deviations in color and texture can occur. Please visit our website for an impression of the color range, which can be expected.

Last update: 10.07.2018